

President
All-Star Gaming

Kevin McHenry

Kevin McHenry, CPA (Inactive), serves as president of All-Star Gaming (ASG), which was founded in 2012 as a joint venture between Nannicola Inc. and Lancaster Bingo Co., two of the top charitable gaming distributors in the country.

ASG brings together Ohio businesses, local charities and the accounting firm JC & Co. from Lancaster, Ohio. Through this partnership, ASG simplifies complex state regulations and streamlines the process of pairing charities with local businesses to raise funds without increasing their volunteer base, giving them more time to focus on their charitable purpose. So far, ASG has helped Ohio charities to raise over $12 million using more than 900 Ohio businesses, bolstering the success of its unique business model.

In addition to his business-related responsibilities, Kevin is a board member of Allied Clubs and Charities of Ohio (ACCO) and the Pennsylvania Gaming Alliance. These roles allow him to work with other industry leaders to lobby for legislative changes that impact the highly regulated gaming and liquor industries.
